

As a Technology Coordinator for the Hancock County School District in Tennessee, I respectfully urge the FCC to increase funding for the E-Rate program to at least $5 billion to meet the demand of applications submitted. The E-Rate program has been a tremendous success in bringing internet access to classrooms in America. These funds are critical for the education and advancement of our students. The success of our students are our nation's future.